

REMARKS

In the Office Communication dated November 20, 2003, the Examiner states that the reply filed on September 15, 2003 is not fully responsive to the prior Office Action, because claim 11, listed as "original", contains language that differs from original claim 11.

Applicants respectfully request that the Examiner disregard the claim listing in the response filed on September 15, 2003, and replace therewith the instant claim listing. The instant claim listing is the identical to that filed on September 15, 2003, except that claim 11, still listed as "original", now contains the same language as original claim 11.

In view of the instant claim listing the remarks in the response filed on September 15, 2003, Applicants respectfully submit that the present application is in condition for allowance, which action is earnestly solicited.

Respectfully submitted,
